

2011 ALAPA Awards

Distinguished Leadership Award Planning Student Team

This award recognizes a planning student team for an outstanding paper or project while enrolled as full time planning students.

*Alabama Chapter of the American
Planning Association*

2011 ALAPA Awards

Green for Life Student Team

Auburn University School of Architecture

Nominated by:

*Charlene LeBleu, Associate Professor of Landscape Architecture,
Rebecca O'Neal Dagg, Interim Dean of the CADC, and Carla Jackson Bell, Director of Multicultural Affairs for CADC*

*Alabama Chapter of the American
Planning Association*

2011 ALAPA Awards

- Auburn University Faculty

- Charlene LeBleu, Associate Professor Landscape Architecture
- Rebecca O’Neal Dagg, Associate Dean, CADC
- Dr. Carla Jackson Bell, Director, Multi-cultural Affairs, CADC

- Volunteers

- Approximately 50 volunteers from the Auburn University CADC Learning Communities, 14 volunteers from the graduate landscape architecture stormwater design class and many neighborhood volunteers.

2011 ALAPA Awards

Michael Glenbowski

Matthew Biesecker

Joshua Lamberth

*Alabama Chapter of the American
Planning Association*

2011 ALAPA Awards

Volunteers

*Alabama Chapter of the American
Planning Association*

2011 ALAPA Awards

The LID Project

*Alabama Chapter of the American
Planning Association*

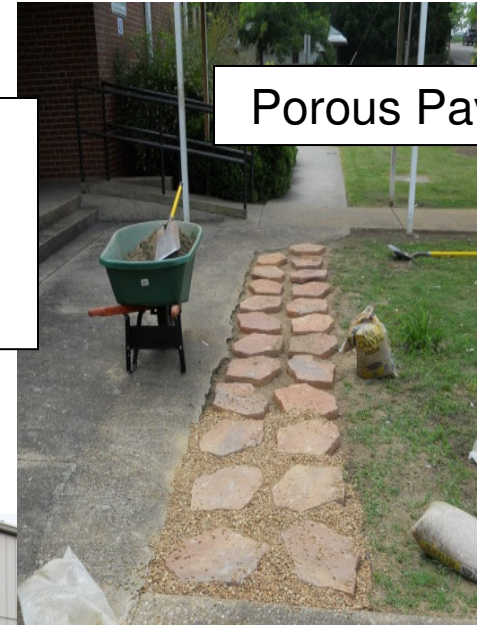

2011 ALAPA Awards

Rain Gardens

Best
Management
Practices

Porous Paving

Bio-Swale

Cisterns

*Alabama Chapter of the American
Planning Association*

2011 ALAPA Awards

Educational Benefits

Green for Life!

- Afterschool Program (K-4)
GreenKidz K-5: Chose It!
- Afterschool Program (5-8)
GreenKidz 5-8: Learn It!
- Afterschool Program (9-12)
GreenTeenz 9-12: Design It!

2011 ALAPA Awards

Green for Life Student Team

Auburn University School of Architecture

Accepting

Josh Lamberth and Matthew Biesecker

*Alabama Chapter of the American
Planning Association*